Dear Atleski family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Aekandar Atleski. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.

Dear Family, I was saddened to read of your loss and I?d like to extend my deepest sympathy for your dear husband and father Mr. Atleski. I pray that you can find hope in the Bible. Jesus Christ, thru God?s Kingdom, in the Bible, gives us the best comfort during times of grief. We can look forward to a resurrection of our loved one and a time when age and sickness will not affect us (1 Corinthians 15:26; John 5:28, 29: Isaiah 33:24) Hope this comforts you like it has my family during loss.

Dear Atleski Family,

We are deeply sorry to hear the news of Aleksandar. What a wonderful man, husband, father and grandfather. It was a pleasure and honor for us to have that wonderful trip to Washington D.C. and Virginia Beach with your Aleksandar and Todora. May God keep all of you in his tender loving care, and give you peace at this difficult time. We pray that Aleksandar and all of you are always surrounded with God's grace, light and love. We have you in our prayers and are always next door if you need anything.

Love,
Rino, Addie, Simone, and Marino Fabiilli
