

Andrew P. Slumba

May 2, 1931 - May 21, 2019

Age 88.

Beloved husband of the late Margaret Ellen for 64 years.

Loving father of Michael (late) (Mary), Lori (Phillip) and Ariana.

Dear grandfather of Noah.

Despite a challenging beginning Andrew worked hard his entire life to provide a comfortable life for his family. He loved being a grandfather and being called grandpa. He will be greatly missed by his daughters.

Andrew was born into poverty during the Great Depression. This was intensified when his father passed away 18 months later. His father's death left him without any fatherly role model in his early life, so he basically had to learn for himself as he navigated through life. He married the love of his life, Margaret, in 1951; and they spent the next 64 years together until her death in 2016.

He diligently worked hard to provide a stable, comfortable life for his family, always putting stability first. He worked as a Lithographer for Chrysler for 30 years.

He has always intensely loved and especially relished his role of "Grandpa."

He will be deeply missed by his daughters.

In lieu of flowers the family request donations be made to Forgotten Harvest.

(<https://www.forgottenharvest.org/donate/>)

Comments

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Andrew P. Slumba.

May 29 at 10:57 AM

“ Nephew Jeff A. from CT: I'll always remember our 2 families vacationing together.... especially Camping in MI. Equally memorable were our Thanksgiving feasts at Uncle Andy's and Aunt Margie's in Sterling Heights.

Uncle Andy had strong political opinions and we did not always agree but I enjoyed the conversations. I remember the stories about his shop at Chrysler and cheering on the the Detroit Lions. He liked to make people laugh. He had many roles and he is/was loved and will be missed: husband, father, grandfather, provider.

To Ariana, Lori, Tisch and Noah: my condolences and love from the E. Coast. I'm sorry that my circumstances do not afford me the op to come back to MI at this time.

Jeff

Jeffrey - May 23 at 11:41 AM

“ Appreciate your kind words and support. We feel your love and looking forward to seeing you soon!

Ariana - June 03 at 10:52 AM

“ My condolences to the family. May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together. Until then may you allow God's word to comfort you during this sad time. Philippians 4:6,7,13 explains where enduring power to cope comes from. May it empower you as it has others.

LD - May 22 at 08:13 AM

“ Thanks for sharing....

Ariana - June 03 at 10:53 AM