“ Brandin will and forever will be one of the best of friends I will ever have. Your spirit could light up a room wherever you would be. I miss your beautiful and genuine amazing soul. I'm late, but still don't feel like you're gone. I shed tears writing this like it was just yesterday. I met you just because I somehow randomly forgot my Jean's in your car and 2 months later you somehow get them back to me like a knight in shining armor even though I forgot all about them because that's what kind of amazing person you are. You gave me back my jeans and the rest was history. Until this day I have your phone number saved under "my jeans". My parent's never gave me a brother but I had you. The hammocks and fun we got into were bar none. You made anyone in the room feel like family because you were such a loving person. The love you had in your heart is more than I still see today. You would have been the best uncle to my little princess. You would have spoiled her rotten. Can't wait to see you. Love you Brandin

“ You were a big part of my best friends life for a long time which made you a big part of mine. I remember giving her the hardest time when I found out the two of you were dating, but then I got to know you and I could see what she saw in you. You were such a genuine person Brandin, and you had the biggest heart. You cared about others more than yourself and you were one of a kind. You got along with everyone and there wasn't a mean bone in your body. You had the loudest goofiest laugh that you could hear from a mile away. It was a laugh that was contagious. I will always remember that laugh. You were more than a person I just partied with, you were like an older brother to me. We had so many great memories throughout the years and although things changed and we all kinda grew separately, I will never ever forget them.

"We all take different paths in life, but no matter where we go, we take a little bit of each other everywhere."~ Tim McGraw

I know you wouldn't want anyone to cry or be sad, but you made such an impact on so many lives, it is inevitable. I like to believe that you will be looking over those you cared for, the way you always have. That's how I remember you, that's how I always will. I don't want to say goodbye to you Brandin, instead I'll say see you later.

Love Always,
Shelbie

“ Brandin Mueller; I still can't believe you're actually gone. It hasn't sunk yet. I'm so blessed I had the chance to have you in my life when I did. You were an amazing person to be around! I miss those 7 am phone calls from you everyday while I was at work. I had the biggest smile on my face whenever I seen your name pop up. (Im going to really miss that) I could always count on you to be there for me whenever I needed someone to cheer me up. Despite our differences way back, I really wish a lot of things would have been different. You're a beautiful soul Brandin; you always had a smile on your face && were the life of the party. You are loved by many many people. We are all going to miss you! <\3 I'll never forget all the times we shared. I'll always cherish them. Like meeting you for the first time at electricity. We talked everyday after that. Meeting your Grandma the day we left for forest && how you didn't understand why she asked for my number. The look on your face = was priceless. Just know you'll ALWAYS have a special place in my heart as well as many many others! Please watch over all of us && keep us safe!!!!Rave in paradise my friend!! It's not goodbye it's c ya later. <\3

You're an amazing soul and great person at heart. You always saw the best in people and had an ability to make them feel special and loved. I will miss your joyful spirit when we would see each other now and again. Our memories from younger days I will always cherish.
