“ I remember thinking Uncle Don was so intimidating. He was SO loud. It was scary. Haha. Obviously, I quickly learned Uncle Don was anything but intimidating. His loudness was a sign of how much he loved. He loved life. He loved all things funny. He loved people. He loved his family. He had a heart of gold. Definitely one of the good guys. Uncle Don, I celebrate you today and always! Love, Stacy

“ I've known Don for a long time. We went to school together and I remember Carol and Don when they first started dating. They were kind of a popular couple and I always looked up to them not knowing we would eventually be related. We had many good times together Boblo Island, bowling and just hanging with the kids. Many wonderful memories. I was saddened to hear of Don's illness of late. I'm sure he fought a good battle. He is in a better place now free from the pain. Sue, I'm truly sorry for your loss. I won't be able to attend the service but you and your family will be in my prayers and thoughts. To Donnie, Penny and Matt, your dad was a wonderful person and know that better days are ahead. I love you as if you were my own.
