“ Dear Family, I am so very sorry for the loss of your loved one. Liz was a beautiful person. Her kindred spirit will live on, in all of us forever. She was such a dear friend to my grandmother. Its hard to imagine that heaven, could possibly be a more beautiful place, the good Lord has received such a special Angel, Liz. May the Lord bless you and keep you Liz, and may he shine his everlasting light of love upon you, and Grant you his peace. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.

“ Your mother was my mother's (Alice Szabo) maid of honor. Everytime I met your mom, she smiled so deeply and warmly at me because I looked like my mom and I'm sure it brought back great memories for her. I'm so sorry for your loss but I know my mom welcomed her with open arms in heaven. Take comfort in knowing she is truly blessed.

“ Dear Family, I'm so sorry to read of the loss of your loved one. I'd like to extend my deepest sympathies. I hope you can find comfort in the following. The Bible teaches us that God yearns to bring back to life the dead who are preserved in his memory. (Job 14:14, 15) His Word, the Bible, gives us a wonderful hope, namely, the prospect of living in a paradise on earth and seeing the resurrection of our dead loved ones. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29) I hope this comforts you in your time of grief.
