“ My deepest, heartfelt prayers and condolences to the family of this wonderful, very special man. Harry and his wife Elaine have been such a gift to me and my family and Harry will be deeply missed. I remember when i first met Harry. My husband and I moved into a rental house directly behind his home and he would be out back feeding his fish every day, shirtless! lol He was in GREAT shape though. He always offered me an apple or pear from his trees along with words of wisdom and he was always happy! It didn't take long before while walking my dogs over to the park by his house, that they discovered this generous man...the man who always had TREATS for them! After meeting Harry, HE'S all they wanted. NOT a walk in the park but a run for his house! My dogs Alex and Stella adored this man and he loved them, too. It's going to be quite different now when we visit the park. Not sure how my dogs will react, but it makes me feel sad. I will miss the times we shared together in his warm and welcoming home. I really never even realized it but this man was like a father to me. He and Elaine were there for me when my husband worked afternoon shifts and I was alone most of the time. Harry even walked the park with me one snowy night when I lost my keys...he got dressed and tried to help me find them and even tried to 'break in' to my car to get my extra keys. He wasn't much of a thief though, and we ended up calling AAA. I have some wonderful memories of Curie St. and this happy couple. I will always remember their kind-hearted ways. Even though I'm convinced that Heaven gained a very special soul in Harry, we lost an incredible angel here on earth. It just wont be the same without him. He is sadly missed already.
