“ Good friend, we were young and scoffed at death, vowing to send each other dozens of "White Roses" to honour the first one "to go". Sadly I sent the "White Roses". How quickly the years passed. You were my best dancing partner. We won 1st Prize for Tango and Waltz. 1st Prize at the "Bal Radiowy"!!! Rest in Christ...Adam.

“ I hope you can find comfort in the fact that the dead are asleep in the grave and are not suffering Ecclesiastes 9:5. Death thereby loses its mystery and no longer needs to cause us dread. The Bible repeats this resurrection promise time and again. “Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up.”—Daniel 12:2. “The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.”—John 5:28, 29. When will this resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous occur? See jw.org for the answer.

“ Adam you were such an amazing godfather to me! We have so many wonderful memories together and I thank you for that. I have always looked up to you and I am going to miss you so much!!! I am so happy we had our special god child dance at my wedding and will always remember "save the last dance for me." Anybody would be so lucky to know you. From laughter to advice or to lean a shoulder on you were that wonderful person. You left too soon, you will always be in my heart and I will remember all my 32 years worth of memories with you. My father picked a great man to be my godfather and I will forever and ever cherish that. Love You!
