“ I'm very saddened to hear of Adam's passing and sorry I hadn't been in touch with him more the past few years. Adam and I spent a very fun summer in NYC when I was living in the Bronx and Adam was visiting Ursula in the village. Made many road trips to visit him outside DC when at Johns Hopkins. My deepest sympathy to Adam's family. Please let me know if there are any tributes or memorial that his friends can take part in. Sincerely, Jason Goltz (jason.goltz@gmail.com)

“ I was one of Adams college buddies and the rest of our college friends will be shocked and saddened when they hear this. We would all meet at Adams condo to remember our college days and forget our daily struggles. Words cannot describe how smart, talented, funny, kind and helpful he was. Words also cannot describe the grief that his family and we now share.

“ Thank you all for your thoughts, prayers and rememberances during this difficult time.

Words can't express the depths of our loss. Adam was fun and funny - yes - but he was also serious when he needed to be. He was an achiever, having gotten a Master's in Electrical Engg. from U of M and pursued a doctorate degree at John's Hopkins. He was also offered employment at MIT, but turned it down, my guess to be closer to his family in MI. He also held a number of patents. Although he was divorced, he was a family man through and through - the Pied Piper to his niece and nephews and best friend to me and each of my brothers. He was generous (more than any of us knew as he never cashed any of the checks we sent to him as reimbursement for his generosity) and always there for us. A true gentleman and a scholar. That's who my brother Adam was.

“ With a sad and heavy heart I learned of Adam's passing. I've known Adam since we were six or seven years old in Zuchy as the younger brother of one of my best friends. I always enjoyed visiting with him in my too infrequent trips back to Detroit where we laughed and shared memories that ranged from Summer Camps, to teenage years and an infamous trip to Mexico in 1977. I admired his academic and professional success; but mostly I admired the Uncle he became to his nieces and nephews.

Philosophers may debate the meaning of life, but I'm certain that friends are a key part of that meaning. I've lost a friend and will miss him. Czuwaj! Dobranoc Adam, spij z Bogiem.

“ I am stunned and numb to learn of the passing of my friend, co-worker, and fellow musician. Adam and I have shared many laughs over the years and he will be greatly missed. There are no words to express my sadness. I pray that paradise consumes him and that all of his family can find comfort in knowing what a great person Adam was, and how much he meant to all of us. “With a very heavy heart I heard of his passing. Adam was a friend and colleague who I could always trust, it is a rare privilege and honor to have known him. Adam's the kind of person who could always brighten your day with his warmth and humor; he had the uncanny ability to keep conversation lively with his wit and positive outlook.

Adam always spoke about his family, especially his love for his nephews; he acted as a role model to them; I'm sure was a favorite uncle.

During the last several years, Adam would come to my house and we would prepare smoked salmon for his Christmas meals. I loved to hear about the details of how his family celebrated traditional Polish Christmas; his connection and commitment to his family was very strong.

Adam will be in my thoughts and prayers for a very long time to come; he is one of those people you meet in life you will never forget.

Please accept my condolences to his entire family.

Sincerely,

Jim Krier

“ We were so shocked and saddened to hear of the passing of Adam. He was a genuine friend. We could never stop laughing whenever we would spend time with him - he was a fun loving guy, and always made us laugh. We know there are no words to comfort your grief, because words seem inadequate to express the sadness we feel. We can only hope that the memories you have of Adam will help support you at this sorrowful time. We miss him, and will continue to miss him. Please accept our sincerest condolences and know that we are mourning with you the sudden loss of him.

“ I am so sad to hear this news. Adam played bass with us the last few years. We got together every few weeks. A great guy, wonderful musician. We didn't gig out much, but man did we have a great time making music in Doug's basement. I am going to miss him alot. I pray that paradise consumes him and that his family and friends find comfort in Adam's legacy in these difficult times.

“ Adam and I met through a mutual friend and he quickly became part of our biking group. On his first ride with us, he showed up on a bike no one should have been riding for a 25 mile trek from Royal Oak to Detroit. But he was determined and it wasn't an adventure without a flat tire along Woodward and a long cab ride home for him. After that I didn't think we'd see him again. But he showed up with a brand new bike, new helmet (which he often wore backwards unknowingly) and he was ready to go. There were many more adventures after that and I'm fortunate to have been there to enjoy them with him. Although our friendship was short, it was everlasting.

The world lost a good person, and we all lost a good friend.

Sincerest thoughts prayers to all family and friends.
