“ We are all given the gift of life, and when that moment comes that one of our loved ones has to give it back, it is extremely hard. Xhaxhi Gimi's departure from this world is hard for the immediate family members and for all of us that knew him.

I went through the same grief not too long ago, and I hate seeing your family experiencing it as well...but I guess this is life and we are all here temporary...I do not want to see Lola's, Eda's, Altini's and all of our griefs as a sign of loss, weakness or lack of faith... instead I will see it as a price of love!

I would like to look back and think of Xhaxhi Gimi's life as a blessing, his memories as a treasure, and I would like to say that you were & will always be loved and missed beyond words.

I, personally have enjoyed his company, intelligent conversations, hearty hugs and kisses on my forehead and a lot more that Xhaxhi Gimi had to offer...and as someone once said: "What we have once enjoyed, it can never be lost. We loved it and it so became part of us!"

Always loved you & I'll always miss you!

RIP Great MAN!
