“ Sending thoughts and prayers to the DeBruyne family. We never think that the day will come that our parents will no longer be with us. But just as we watch our children grow, we watch our parents get older and then the day comes when we see them start the next leg of their journey without us. The journey that we all will take someday. So for now we remember the life and love that we shared with them and we look to the future when we will someday be with them again. I will always remember you as such a kind person Aunt May. You never judged others and you always asked how others were doing even though you were in pain yourself. I'm so glad for that last phone call. Rest In Peace and may God's perpetual light always shine upon you.
