“ I have such fond memories of my great-aunt Lesia from my childhood. I will always remember her gentle, calm presence; and how much she loved her chewing gum. She was consistently sweet, kind, and steady, the type of person who made you feel at ease just by being near her. Every Christmas, I sent her a card, and she always sent one back. It became a small but cherished tradition that meant so much to me. I am grateful and honored that my children, Ari and Vera, had the chance to meet her. May her memory be eternal.
