

Alerson Ramos Suan

September 1, 1973 - April 4, 2022

Alerson Ramos Suan, 49, died April 4, 2022 in his home in Sterling Heights, MI.

Alerson was born on September 1, 1973 in Allen, Northern Samar, Philippines, the son of Pablo (deceased) and Libertad Suan. To friends and acquaintances in the US, he was known as “Al”, but to his family and childhood friends from the Philippines, he was endearingly called “Nonoy”. Aside from being a full-time accountant, Al had an immense love for tennis and volleyball. It is through these sports where he helped build and form tight-knit communities. He was an organizer for the Filipino American Sports Teams of Detroit (FAST-D), where he coordinated tennis clinics, an organizer and member of the Midwest Metro Tennis League, and an active member in various local volleyball leagues including the Beach Bottom Indoor Sand Volleyball League. Alerson was also involved in many Filipino organizations. His impact and legacy will be felt by those who were blessed to encounter such rare passion and drive.

He is survived by his loving family: his mother Libertad, his brothers Abe, Andy, Alex, Wilmar, and Aldrin, his sister Maricer, and all of his nieces and nephews.

“ My deepest condolences to Al's family and friends. Al was such a force of nature. I played sand volleyball on and off for about five years, until about six years ago. We would cross paths every once in a while.

No joke, when I'm telling people about the power of a positive attitude, I actually tell the story of how when this guy named Al showed up for volleyball, it was like an electric jolt went through the place -- he would just energize the courts. It was especially fun when he would roll in his big speaker and we would play on Friday nights past sunset with great music blasting. He knew how to have a good time and spread his love and cheer. He was so one of a kind.

The last time I saw him was several years ago during a Monday Night "Slow Roll" in Detroit. I thought it was my good fortune to run into him among a crowd of about 10,000 people. We chatted for quite a while. I believe he told me his brother is a priest -- he loved his family. People were everything to him.

I guess the best way to describe him would be to say that -- truly -- if you asked me who I know who acts the most like Jesus -- I would pick him. Again, I am so very sorry for your loss and I extend my heartbreaking condolences to all who loved him. Lee

“ About 14 years ago I decided to give tennis a try. Had just finished doing a drill and Al, who I had never met before, runs up to me and asks me to sub in one of his leagues..., needless to say I got spanked pretty hard but went on to play on many of Al's USTA teams and leagues. Many of my best friends I met through Al and tennis has become a regular part of my life.

Just goes to show how much one person with a great attitude and a positive, friendly approach can change life for the better for so many.

Al will be missed by everyone who's lives he touched but his spirit will continue in each of us.

Deepest condolences to Al's family, he was the best!

“ I first met Al in early August of 2005 the at USTA District Play-offs in Plymouth, Michigan. He was Captaining a great tennis team out of the Wimbledon Club in St. Clair Shores that barely managed to beat my team which was playing out of the Farmington Tennis Club. Al's team went on to win Districts, States, Sectionals, and went all the way to Nationals! The following year, my team beat his at Districts and went on from there. But the rivalry between our two teams was really something and still talked about. Over the years, our teams played each other a few more times but nothing as memorable, except his teams had a way of winning most of the Quad tournaments each December at the Franklin Athletic Club. Al had perhaps the greatest tennis network in southeastern Michigan. His contributions to amateur tennis at the local level are probably unmatched by any single individual in recent memory. Al's energy, selflessness, drive, wit, and organizational skills will be missed by many for a long time. It was impossible not to like and respect him.
