“ Dear Sylvia,
We are so sorry. Our memories of you and Al are all good ones. He was a great person and always so willing to help whenever asked. He never let his health hold him back and truly lived a full life in spite of illness. You will be in our prayers and thoughts.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Losing a friend or family member in death is never easy. One thing that helps me cope with the loss is the scripture John 5:28, 29. It says: "All those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who practiced good things to a resurrection of life..." Our creator promises to resurrect those who are sleeping in death. You may wonder, when and how? For the answer please visit www.jw.org and download the free book, What Does the Bible Really Teach? I am sure that you will be comforted as I have been.
