“ some of the best memories of my brother and I were when we were growing up in Dearborn, Michigan. We had a neighborhood "Bully" who was quite large and older than me. Everytime he caught me alone and was going to kick my ass, my brother, Alvin would show up out of nowhere and took care of the "Bully". What a relief to see my Big Brother. I also remember, my brother and I played a duet at a recital. He played the Clarinet, I played the Sax. We played in front of a large group of people. Those times I spent with my brother I will never forget. My brother and I were never close as we got older, but I always Loved my brother and looked up to him. God Bless You Alvin..Rest in Peace.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Alvin's passing. Living out of state we only saw each other sadly, at funerals. He was a wonderful person and will be missed. My prayers are with Mary and the children. Alvin's cousin, Lydia Mackie Cunningham
