Andrea (Andy) Ercolani April 14, 1943 - November 21, 2020

Known as 'Andy' to all that knew and loved him, Andy was born in the Republic of San Marino, Italy on April 14, 1943. He arrived to the shores of the United States of America in 1964 to build a new future life. Andy initially worked with his uncle as a brick mason and eventually started his own Cement/Mason Company. He and his wife (of 52 years) met in August 1967. They married in 1968 and began building a home and family together. As a teenager, Andy's son worked along side his dad and learned much about developing a strong work ethic and the construction trades. Andy's daughter watched and learned, putting those skill sets to good use in future years.

Lovingly known as the "Boss", he provided 'character building' work opportunities for other family members. Andy possessed a quiet wisdom and logic about life that was shared with all that took time to listen. Family and friends remember Andy as a man of great character and someone who possessed a wonderful sense of humor.

Andy's retirement came early in life due to a brain aneurysm, however, God blessed him with many years of happiness. It allowed him to enjoy extra time with his wife, children and grandchildren. Andy and his wife enjoyed vacationing, visiting family and other simple pleasures of life.

Andy will always be remembered as a loving and devoted husband, father and 'Nonno'. Beloved husband of Marlene (Padgett) Ercolani
Loving father of Anthony (Sheila Howe) Ercolani, Sr, Christina (Scott) Kowalski

Grandfather of Jordan Kowalski, Ethan Kowalski, Andrea Ercolani, Jacob Kowalski and Anthony Ercolani, Jr.
