“ Dear Kim, Kayla, Corey, and Connor:

Oh my gosh Kim; I was shocked and terribly saddened to hear of Andy's passing tonight. I saw his notice in the newspaper tonight and almost fell over. Again, I am so very sorry to hear about this. I have so many wonderful memories of working and becoming friends with both of you at Konica. I just drove past the area you lived in Troy and told my boyfriend about you guys. Im not sure if you still live there or not, but I remember the street! I remember all the wonderful holiday parties, remember when you guys built the house on Orpington, all of the fun times we had at work and outside of work too, and have never forgotten about you and your family. My heart goes out to all of you. My deepest condolences go out to you and everyone in your lovely family.

Sincerely,

Laura Acx

“ Andy was a great husband and father. He was a kind and loving person and will be missed by all those who knew him. He fought the battle very hard to the end. Keep his memory alive in your hearts as we will. I'll remember him because of his TV dinners. We love you all and pray that God will give you the strength to carry on in the days and years ahead.

“ Sorry to hear about the passing of Andy. Its sad to see someone that was such a good person & had such a love for life, have to pass so soon as a result of this terrible disease. Despite the grief, their is a hope of seeing him again. Read Rev. 21:3,4 & John 5:28,29 and pray to the "God of Comfort" as he helps you through this difficult time.

“ Our deepest sympathy to the Forman family. Andy was our dear neighbor and good friend for many years. He was also our sons Cub Scout Leader all through school. I will always remember the fun the boys had with Andy, and how much they learned from him. I can still see Andy taking the scouts sledding in freezing cold temps, riding his old toboggin from high school down those hills!! Such good memories to hold close. He will forever be in our hearts. May God guide his family through this difficult time and keep them close.

“ To the Forman family: I am sorry to hear of Andy's passing. I met Andy through my friendship with Steve Jafano and Kim. I moved to Texas back before Correy and Connor were born, but fortunately I did get to spend time with Kim, Andy and Kayla in those days. My sympathy goes out to Kim and their children at this sad time. Kim, it's comforting to know that you and the kids live so close to Steve and Tim, as that will continue to be a great form of support for all of you. My condolences.

“ It's no surprise that so many have kind words to share about Andy. I remember even in my childhood when I was quite shy at family gatherings, my older cousin Andy went out of his way to put a smile on my face. This inherent kindness will endure within his spirit in the next life and make heaven all the brighter. We all miss you, cousin. Love, Todd

“ Dearest Andy was very special. He was our ring bearer at our wedding at age 6. Such a sweet boy. He had a gentle spirit and a beautiful smile-always caring, always willing to help. He loved his family and we loved him very much. Our hearts are breaking that God called him now, but we know that he is in good hands and surrounded by his family in heaven. Kim, Kayla, Corey and Conner...please know that Andy, your husband and father, will always be with you. He is a part of all of you..you are his legacy. Just close your eyes and remember all the happy times together...the laughter..the sharing. He is still with you, watching over you, taking care of you as your newest Guardian Angel. Talk to him and then just listen. God Bless you Andy Forman. We love you and God does too.

“ I've known Andy my entire life. And in that time, he's always been one of the 'warmest' persons I've known to be around. I still can not believe what he became faced with and his passing at an age far too early. This will take all of us a significant amount of time to accept. Our hearts, prayers & support go out to Kim, Kayla, Corey & Connor. We are all here for you to get through this time. We love you Andy... you will be dearly missed. Love, Cousin Chris

“ There will never be another like Andy!! He was so special. A wonderful husband and father....and a cherished friend to Paul. Andy had an unmistakable voice...and a GREAT sense of humor! Every time we got together it was always a good time with a lot of laughter! He stood up in our wedding almost 19 years ago...and we will never look at those pictures again without missing him terribly. Rest dear friend, until we meet again. Love Always, Paul, Tammy, Angela & Paul

“ My Dear Brother Andy~~I will miss you every day. You were a wonderful son, father, brother, brother-in-law, nephew, cousin & friend to all you touched.

You devoted your adult life to taking care of your wife Kim and children Kayla, Corey & Connor. There was nothing you wouldn't do for your family. I know you will continue to watch over them.

I wish I could of done more for you when fighting with all your strength to win this evil battle.

But now you are no longer in pain and in a better place...with Dad.

*I love you today & always
Your Sister Chris*

“ My family and I send our deepest sympathies to the Forman Family. Andy will continue to be missed. He was easy to get along with, whilst placing the Companies best interest at heart. Bobadilla said it best, he was a true Gentleman; sometimes I thought he was from the South; but then he would speak and give it away. Our prayers are with the Forman Family for a quick and successful healing period.
