“ What a gift it has been to have Anis with us for 86 years...which went by way too quickly! He became the patriarch of the family at a young age, making sure to keep his siblings together. He was a loving father, brother, husband, and grandfather. He was a hard-working wage earner for many years. He delighted in making us laugh with his wonderful sense of humor. He enjoyed feeding us and cooking wonderful Lebanese meals. He was a loyal friend to many. He handled his health problems with strength and grace... and always assured us everything was “OK,” never wanting anyone to worry. We will forever love and miss this good man with the big heart...and always remember him fondly with happy memories. Sending our love and condolences, Kathy Farhat & Family
