“ When the flowers are gone I take this time to send my condolences. At a time of passing it is so wonderful that we the 'Resurrection' group can experience respect, love and ending support. The Koval girls now again and again realize what a blessed and special up-raising we were given. Fond memories of Mrs. Koval ALWAYS having that warm smile when in greeting myself or my family. The Ujda store was a warm place to just hang around and at the same time supervising the daily going on's.

Your parents always showed respect to my parents as well as my siblings. Prayers that the Good Lord will watch over you and give you strength to get through the passing of your dear Mother. God Bless to you and your families from one of the Sliter siblings.

“ Dear Koval Family,

Your Mother looks nearly exactly as I remember her as a child - beautiful! We had a wonderful neighborhood in Detroit that are a part of so many good memories. It was a time when a village raised the neighborhood children along with the parents. My Mother and I were in your grandparents store so often. I have memories of barely being able to see over the counter and purchasing "dry goods". The Greenfield Village historic general store can't hold a candle to the joy your grandparent's store and your parents brought to so many!

Wishing you peace at this time of loss.

Most sincerely, Anne Marie (Rudzewicz) Walkiewicz

“ Dear Koval girls and family,

I was so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. We always remember her and your Dad as the friendly and smiling neighbors. Your Mom always had a kind word for us. Our family was very fortunate to have you living across the street from us on Oliver. I will be out of town on Tuesday visiting my daughter and her family in Charlotte, NC and as a result will be not be able to pay my respects. Please know that your family and your Mom are in my thoughts and prayers. Sincerely, Dan Rys

Hello to the Koval family and condolences at the same time. What strong memories erupted on seeing your mothers passing. Your mother was a strong woman who protected her family well. I was the paperboy at your house and the store on Mt. Elliot. A little kid customer at your grandparents store next to your house (Silvercup bread on Wednesday and the great kielbasa Saturday mornings). My sisters played with you girls under the vigilante eye of your mother. She was a nice woman and didn't take any stuff from us kids.

Until moving to Florida 2 years ago I regularly drove through the old neighborhood we once called home.

My folks are gone but not forgotten. Your mom will always be with you too.

I will share this info with my brothers and sisters. I'm sure it will bring fond memories to them.

God bless,

Dear Koval Girls,

My sincerest condolences. What a flood of memories came through on hearing of your mother's passing. I still can picture my dad's bowling shirt that said Koval Dry Goods. A lot of time spent on Oliver Street and at your grandparents' store and a lot of good friends in that neighborhood.

Your family is in my thoughts and prayers.
