

Ann Cecelia Medonis

November 21, 1952 - July 24, 2016

Married to Raymond Medonis who passed away in 2002.

Ann was a long time resident of Northville raising a family of six children. Paul (Adrienne), Mark (Sokore), Andrew, Patrick, Mary Ellen, and Annie Laurie. Loving grandmother to Noah. Siblings Patrick, twin brother Dennis (deceased in 2008), Brian, Stephen, and John.

Born in Detroit to Joseph and Cecelia Clancy (deceased in 2002) and graduated from St. Mary's of Redford School. Growing up with a backyard skating rink and 4 hockey playing brothers.

Ann was skating at a very early age and became a beautiful figure skater. She performed, competed and eventually taught. In addition to her active lifestyle, Ann dabbled in many endeavors. Along with teaching, she was an avid gardener, decorator, professional organizer and designer. She surrounded herself with things she loved: old fashioned pictures and photos, colorful fabrics and furniture, butterflies, and flowers.

For as long as possible, she longed to be outdoors. Her last four weeks were spent in the loving care of her brother Stephen with a view of his beautiful backyard garden.

Ann was a devoted member of Great Lakes Church where she experienced fellowship, treasured friendships and loving support. Ann was diagnosed with MSA (multiple system atrophy)

“ *When I moved into Ann's town, she stopped me and we started talking like the years had not sped by! We graduated high school in the same year. The early memories were of her hitting tennis balls against the side of the grade school.
My condolences.*

“ *Ann was my older cousin. I didn't know her as an adult but I remember, as a child, being amazed by her. She was stunningly beautiful. With amazed those brothers she was strong, brave and athletic, but she was also graceful and gentle. She was always kind and sweet, intelligent and thoughtful.
I'm sending love, sympathy, and condolences to the family.*

“ *Hello Medonis and Clancy families
Ann was a first cousin to my cousins! Her Aunt Mary June Clancy married my Dad's bro, my Uncle Thomas. Gotta love the Clancy's. I remember Ann's Grandparents quiet fondly and her parents. And Dennis and some of her other brothers too. Ann and I always shared a laugh and smile and called each other cousin's cousin. Didn't make us really related, but made us fast friends for sure. We went to the same school together, St. Mary of Redford and our paths crossed frequently. Dennis was in most of my classes. Ann was such a sweet person. Even though I've not seen her in years and years, I know she was just as sweet and kind as she was in our school years. Prayers for her children and family and her brothers and families. I know she will be missed. God bless you all.*

Ann Clancy was a true beautiful soul walking the earth. I have known Ann since she was a baby as we are first cousins. We shared many a family picnic and dinners at grandma Clancy's house for holidays and special occasions. Her father Joe is my dad Harry's younger brother. I remember Ann as a fabulous ice skater winning trophies and ribbons, a quiet yet brilliant young woman who was a determined and loving mother. Her children are a living example of that. Most of all I remember Ann as a dear friend who would spend hours on the phone with me telling me about her new ideas for creating this and that and her latest job adventures and then Ann came to visit me when I had my youngest daughter and we spent time at beach and touring around talking and dreaming. Those dreams shone though in her eyes. She was one of the most loving and genuine humans I have ever met and I will miss her so much. I know this is a difficult time for her children, father and siblings, and I hope their hearts will heal in time. Sending love.

My heart goes out to Ann's family at this time. She was truly, the kindest sweetest most genuine person. I remember spending time with her when we were children, as I am one of her first cousins on her dad's side. I remember her teaching me how to skate in her backyard and I also remember spending time with her on the lake at her family cottage. She was truly beautiful inside and out. I was fortunate to have Ann come for a visit in California. She stayed at my house for a night and we were able to catch up on the many years that had passed. It is said that the eyes are windows to the soul, her eyes shined a light that was truly kind and loving. Such a beautiful soul, gone too soon. Sending lots of love and light to her children and family at this time. I hope your hearts will heal soon.
