“ I love you so very much, Grandma.

There are so many memories over all these years, it's hard to pick just one. I will always cherish the memories we shared... Sleeping over at your house as a kid and waking up to a breakfast of scrambled eggs and "panycakes", eating homemade pickles and sour red berries from the backyard of your Hamtramck house, decorating your Christmas tree while playing with your dog, Blacky, looking forward to Easter just so we could have those little chocolate covered bunny cakes from the local bakery, going to Myrtle Beach and hearing you yelling at us to not go into the ocean because you were worried, those mini chocolate covered donuts from the neighborhood party store, watching baby Laura walking around your house while you were babysitting her, playing in the back alley behind your house, watching you make us dinner, our visits to the Ukrainian Basket Blessing, you coming over to my house with a box of donut holes, eating food at the Sunflower Festival, laughing at our family holiday gatherings, posing for pictures at the family summer night weekends, celebrating Laura's wedding and baby shower, years of you asking me when I will be getting married and having a baby, all the hugs, all the love....so many wonderful memories.

I am heartbroken that you are gone, but I know that you are a young, beautiful, happy being in the next life. Sometimes I feel you standing next to me and I know that you are safe and looking over all of us. I LOVE YOU SO MUCH. I will see you again someday when we are reunited in Heaven.
