“ Oh the memories of Mom Gabel. They go back over 40 years. Little did I know back then that she would become my 2nd Mom. She wasn't fond of me those first few years, but she was my best friend's mom and I really wanted her to like me. I remember doing the rosary, going to confession, a trip in the camper, and so much more. But the day she approached me and told me how much she appreciated me, that I really was a good friend to Donna and Mary, and how she hadn't realized I had a good heart under my tough exterior, well that day is still my best memory of her. I had finally received her blessing. □

My heart goes out to all of her family for the loss of such a great mom, grandmother, and friend. She meant the world to me and I am devastated about her death, yet so happy she has finally made it home to live in peace.

Love you Mom 🥰🙏 □

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all the Gabel family. She always made me think of the quote from Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream... "Though she be but little, she is fierce. "
