

Anna May Jezak

October 24, 1928 - October 10, 2018

Beloved wife of the late Douglas.

Devoted mother of David (Theresa), Thomas (Maria), and Jeffrey (Stacey).
Loving grandmother of Sarah (Brent) Burgess, Kathleen (Emilio), Pamela (Mario), Jonathan (Dana), Joshua (Jeannette), Cory (Martyna), Leah (Brandyn) Fecteau, Douglas, and Jillian.

Treasured great grandmother of Jonathan Jr. and Vanessa.

Anna May was the middle of 13 siblings, who have sadly since passed away.

Two of her siblings are survived by their spouses, Fred Rusher and Betty Lou Liscinsky. Anna May was born a Slovak farm girl in Spangler, Pennsylvania.

She moved to Detroit after World War II. She met and married Douglas in 1953, they had three sons. Douglas passed in 1970 and Anna May raised her three sons by herself. She took on the role of both mother and father. The Catholic faith was her whole life, which gave her the strength to turn to love and patience before anger and discipline. Her boys became great men with strong family values because of her honest love for them. Anna May belonged to the Rosary Alter Society and dedicated her time to feed the poor through the Capuchin Soup Kitchen. She started the Catholic Prayer Group at Beaumont Hospital, which included the CEO of Beaumont. She served Communion at Father Murray Nursing Home. The following is a letter written to Anna May from one of the residents there.

"I have a new friend her name is Anna May. I haven't known her long but she means a lot to me. You see she brings Holy Communion to people like me who are confined to bed and can't attend Mass. So we look forward to Sunday when, with a big smile on her face, she walks into our room and lights up the place. When she speaks of God her eyes light up with a glaze and it's not just a phase. Every word she speaks comes right from her heart and speaks of God as her very best friend. She leaves me with thoughts too hard to define, but with an everlasting gratitude that this friend is mine - "Aunt" Helen"

Anna May dedicated her life to prayer, volunteering, and helping people. The world has lost an angel. She will be missed dearly by many, many people. In lieu of flowers family requests donations be made in Anna May's name to St. Bonaventure Secular Franciscan Fraternity (<http://www.sfofbonaventure-detroit.org/>).
