“ Ann was a dear friend for many years. She was one of the kindest, gentle people I have every known. Her faith was very strong and she was very giving. I made her a blanket and sent it to her for Christmas. She really liked the blanket. One day she called to tell me she gave it to a lady in church. The lady kept looking at it and feeling it so Anna felt the right thing to do was give it to her. She apologized for giving it away. But I told her she did the right thing. That was Anna she would give you anything she had to help you. I will miss you but never forget you. Rest in peace my Sweet Anna. I pray for strength for the ones left behind.

“ Anna will be missed by us here in Fiddlers Creek in Naples, Florida. She was a wonderful person who lit up a room with her smile. She fought such a brave fight and we will never forget her. She and all her family are in our prayers. Love, Al and Janet Tetta
