“ I will miss talking with Anna about cooking, parenting, and the other “small stuff” of Life. She was always full of interesting stories, and good advice. God willing we all will see her again in Glory. - Joshua Bardel

“ I remember Anna as a loyal, loving friend. She stood up for what was always right and was never scared to speak the truth. She was strong, determined, independent, honest, hard working, dedicated, loving and most of all, genuine and funny. She made me laugh most of all. She made me smile. Every time I would see her, I couldn't wait to stretch my arms and hug her. We had a connection and my mom Doina loved her too. She was a great friend, like family. She knew what a hard life was and we had that connection and understanding of supporting each other. She was beautiful, inside and out. Not a lot of people have the brave strength and courage Anna had. She made my world a happy place as she did for many others. I was blessed to have known her and cherish the memories we had together in this life. She was a woman of honor and respect, she fought hard and was truly an inspiration to all. Anna was always there for me and my family. She always kept her word and promises and never showed an ounce of distance even when we didn't see each other for long periods of time. She was always close to us even when she was far away. She will remain close to us forever in our memories and heart. We miss you very much Anna. May Heaven have a Marshall's store there, a fresh thyme market, and most of all, empty spots for all of us as you wait for us to join you one day. Stay classy and sassy my most honest sweet angel. God spoil you. You deserve all the Glory, I know you worked hard for it. Rest In Peace our beloved friend. We will always love you. Until we meet again sweet Anna.
