

Anthony William Sobolewski

October 25, 2014

Age 47.

Anthony was a longtime resident of Warren and attended Fitzgerald High School. He was a painter by trade and took great pride in his work. His most cherished possessions were his children.

He is survived by his children Jennifer Johnson, Joshua Johnson, Kimberly Johnson, Jerry Sobolewski, Brandon Sobolewski, Kaitlin Sobolewski and their mother Ellen Johnson.

Grandfather of Emilee and Gabriel Johnson.

Beloved son of Sherry Sobolewski and the late Jerome Sobolewski.

Brother of Craig (Laurie) Sobolewski.

Grandson of Ella June Dwyer and the late William Hatcher.

He leaves behind a large extended family in the Metro area as well as the Southern states.

“Dad I can't believe your gone it hurts me so much to see u lying on the casket like that when I went to touch you u were really hard and cold I really wish u were still here to tell me how much I am doing good. Guess what I moved out moms house and found a guy that treats me right and I hurts him so much but he forgave me for what I did and he should of left me but u know what everything happens for a reason right that's why we're still together we are living together he met the family and I met his mom loves him. A lot already can't u believe that dad doing really good in proud of my self I just wish I can tell you all about it in person I love you dad and I hope u forgive for what I did to my boyfriend we are getting married soon and you are more than welcome to come r.i.p

“ Anthony was the best father figure i ever had, really the only family i ever had,and hearing about this two days gets the best of me, everyday i think about you dad, and knowing you're gone, gets me depressed, you once told me, "your doing the best i ever seen you do" that made me smile, you were always here for when everyone else wasnt, you have so much respect from me, each and every day i shed tears because you left this world, and i never got the chance to go to your service,, its messed up i was the last one to know about your death, it pains me to much, i know your watching over me wanting me to do whats right, i just need your guidance and support, ill come see you soon dad, i love you so much, R.I.P

“ Wow! I'm speechless, I am so sorry for the loss of Tony,thankful for FB we got to talk on there not long ago, talking about our days on Atlantic street and how My sister&I would go knock on his bedroom window at like 4am to borrow sugar that we really didn't need. Such awesome memories! May you rest in peace Tony, way to young to die, makes me so sad! God Bless you and your family! R.I.P. my friend!

“ There are so many good memories of Tony, he was a true friend and never fake. What you saw or heard is what you got. He was a friend you could talk too and he was part of our family. Every weekend he would come over with his kids and we would have bbq's and cook dinners, just 2 weeks ago Tony and my son were westling in the front yard and they looked so funny I was in tears laughing. Tony was a great dad and friend and I will miss his weekend visits and phone calls calling me names and his laugh that was so contagious you couldn't help but laugh too. My family will miss his always and forever.
