“ Toni will be so missed by me and my family. We live next door to each other and did alot together. Our favorite was going out to eat then going to the dollar store. We were always there for each other . Toni was a believer of Jesus Christ and a prayer warrior. She will now be able to see her family and friends who went to Heaven before her and whom she missed so much. I Love you Toni and will miss you!!!

“ Toni was a great lady. She sent many card-notes during the years, after I achieved Senior Status in the Archdiocese of Detroit, and usually they arrived at just the right time. She updated me on her family life and cheered me along. I treasured each one. Rest in peace, Toni.
