“ When I came upon Audrey during her hospital stay, I said "Audrey Dennis the respiratory therapist?" She abruptly sat straight up in bed from her restful state. She was smiling and beaming with proudness.

From that day, I had the good fortune to rekindle a friendship. I am grateful that I could spend a little bit of time and enjoy a few conversations with her. I will remember her as a smart, strong and independent woman sharing good advice.

My thoughts are with her family during this difficult time. In time may wonderful memories replace your sorrow 💕💕
