“ Aunt Barbara was such a great person and loving soul. The Detroit sports teams have losted a very dedicated fan. Our family won't be the same without her. She already is so deeply missed.

“ I have known Barb for many, many years. We worked together at the bank, and have remained best of friends ever since. She was the kindest, most generous, God loving person that I had the pleasure of knowing. Rest in peace Barb.
Our hearts go out to all your love ones and family,

“ Our deep sympathy to you all. She was Marlene's sister Glenna's special friend. She has been in our home once or twice, and we talked to her on the phone quite often. Glenna said I will miss my best friend and we had some wonderful times together, and she will be praying for the family.
