“ Cousins & their families, Sad to hear of Aunt Barb's passing. Of all the Fetterly aunts & uncles, Aunt Barb was the best. I believe this is reflected in the good kids she & Uncle Jim had as well as their children.

Like my cousin Jan, I too remember the Christmas gatherings where we bounced between the Fetterly homes and occasionally across the street to our grandparents.

My thoughts are with you today and in the future. Take care & savor the good memories of her.

Aunt Barb was also my favorite! When I was 13 I wanted to marry her and was absolutely crushed to discover that Uncle Jim beat me to the altar!

“ To my dear Cousins, I was so saddened by Your Moms passing the other day. Many thanks to Sues daughter in law for calling me. My memories of Aunt Barb go back to when I was a kid. Our families spent many good times at your home, going between Uncle Dick and Aunt Marge's home. I remember Christmas holidays with always a holiday visit! Your Mom is my last Aunt of her generation to leave us, and now it is on to a new generation. My prayers go out to all of You.

“ Aunt Barb: I miss you already.. When I was 12, I dreamed of marrying you; but then Uncle Jim appeared on the scene and stole your heart... And now you two are reunited! Much love, Nephew Al Murdock..
