“ Barb. Ah, Barb. She was Barb to me. And my siblings and my parents. She always was around to share the goings on on Virginia street. She always looked out for us all. She was funny and sweet and the lady you ran to if an emergency happened or you wanted advice. Every Halloween she packed a brown lunch bag with the good treats and a juice box. Just for us Timko kids. She and her family were family to us too. She was a great lady and I'll always remember her with deep fondness. Rest well, Barb. ❤️

“ *Barb was a good neighbor and friend!!! She was a special lady who cared for all. May her family find comfort in knowing she was very much loved. Her daughter Renee was my best babysitter!
