

Bernice Irene Waser

April 29, 1929 - March 9, 2017

Age 87 of Sterling Heights, passed away on Thursday, March 9, 2017.

She was born to the late Lawrence and Ada Ferrell on April 29, 1929.

Bernice was born in Caruthersville, MO and later moved to St. Louis, MO where in high school she played softball and the drums in her high school band. As a young woman, Bernice moved up to Detroit, Michigan where she worked as an executive secretary and was an active member of a regional Detroit chapter of Sigma Alpha Sorority where she shared her joy of singing and acting on the stage for a National Convention and during fund raising campaigns. Bernice enjoyed playing bridge, painting, gardening, downhill skiing, and writing poetry.

Bernice is survived by her daughters Sandra Waser and Carol Waser, granddaughters Carrie Kalmbach (nee Simmons) and Amy Simmons, and many cousins, nieces and nephews. She was pre-deceased by her husband Richard G. Waser and her 4 brothers and 4 sisters.

Bernice requested a private burial and funeral. The family wishes to thank Heart to Heart Hospice as well as all of those who cared for her during her stay in memory care at My Doctor's Inn.

Memorial donations may be made to The Alzheimer's Association: <http://www.alz.org/>
