“ Dear family, it saddens me to know that your dear loved one Bill Crews has fallen asleep in death. But you can take comfort in knowing that is how God views death, as sleeping. Just as easy it is to wake someone from sleeping; that is exactly what the bible promises will take place to wake our loved ones from sleeping in death. (Luke 8:51-54) It will not be long before you will see the truthfulness of those words. Please allow that hope to bring you comfort as you await the fulfillment of those promises and when the last enemy death is brought to nothing. (1 Corinthians 15:26) www.jw.org.

“ Dear Larry and Maria,

I speak for Anna's remaining siblings--your aunts and uncles, Emma, Harold, Mary, Hattie, and Jerry-- in expressing our love and gratitude for your father being a part of our family.

He was a true Christian gentleman who faced the challenges life presented with a smile and a generous spirit. It was a blessed day when he made Anna his wife, beginning a journey together that would last until Anna's death in 2012.

Always a faithful, loving husband, father and grandfather, he is reunited with Anna and Noah and all those he loved who had gone before.

*All our love,
Phil and Pat*

“ Bill was my step-father for almost 60 years. It is with deep regret I was not able to be of help to him during the time since my Mom passed (Sept 2012). Circumstances beyond my control prevented me from being a part of his life since Mom’s passing. If I could have, I would have done anything to help him throughout the last months of his life. He was a dear step-father who took care of two step-daughters who were not his responsibility. I do appreciate all he did for me as I was growing up. He was a very good husband to my Mother and took care of her as only a man deeply in love would. I am VERY THANKFUL for the part he played in my life. Once again, he is with his beloved wife, Anna Lee.

I have and will miss him.

Love Gail (Barbara)

John 16:33 – “I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.”
