“ To my sister Billie Sue who loved life and those in it and always saw the glass half full. It was never half empty to her. She told me she did not understand why people did not like being on this earth She loved it and she lived it to its fullest. Her family was the most important thing in her life and she loved and appreciated her loyal friends. I love her, I will miss her but I will see her again and we will celebrate a life even better than the one on this earth. Till then little sister, rest in peace in God's arms. My darling nieces, my heart hurts for you. You had a fantastic mother and grandmother. Her love will never leave you. I love you all. Aunt Peggy Dilldine Gunter

“ *My Aunt Sue had a smile that could light any room she flashed it in, a glint in her eye wherein the promise of mischief resided and dimples that were the envy of every woman I know. But I will most remember that she was kind and strong and brave and loving, and I am fortunate to have called her family. Darcy and Kelly, I wish you great grace at this time and look forward to seeing you soon. ~
