“ My dear Aunt Sue

Where do I begin? First and foremost, to every member of her family (her children, her brother all my cousins and their spouses, all of her grandchildren and great grandchildren and countless friends) I along with my family extend our deepest and most sincere sympathy.

Of all my grandmothers siblings, she was by far the one I have been the closest to. (and I definitely had my pick, seeing as how my Granny Garrett bore 11 children.) With my loving Uncle Perry coming in at a close 2nd. 😊

The number of memories I have of my Aunt Sue are countless, so I will only share a couple. My Aunt was an extremely talented writer, but it's her poetry that drew me in and gave me such joy and inspired me to not only enjoy writing, but it gave me a true love of poetry. My Aunt's poems were thoughtful and witty, but most of all they always left me feeling proud and joyful. ❤️🙏❤️ A more recent memory was when I was hospitalized last year for a little more than a month. My loving Aunt called me nearly every night for about two weeks straight. Each night when my hospital phone rang, it was her loving, caring and most thoughtful voice on the line wanting to check in on how I was doing. We didn't chat long, but her words and the sound of her voice made me feel incredibly loved and extremely blessed. ❤️🙏❤️ One final memory is from when I was just a little girl. I have vivid memories of her coming to our home to either color or perm my mother's hair, but she never left me out, she would always bring me something, either a toy or a sweet treat. How incredibly thoughtful and precious is that.

She will be dearly missed, so I cling to the fact that one day I will see her again up in heaven, along with her beloved husband, my Uncle Jack, her mother (aka - Granny Maxwell) and father, and all of her siblings that have passed on before her. She was a woman of great faith and I am a better person because of her fervent prayers and knowledge of scripture.

So it's not so much as to say goodbye, but rather, I look forward *with great anticipation to seeing you again, when I someday am at home with my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

With all my love, your great niece Leslie, Paul, Stephanie and Samuel Dunham* ❤️🙏❤️

“ I grew up next door to Sue, Jack and of course those 6 boys. I remember her as being sweet and southern. Even though we hadn't seen each other in years, she will forever be in my heart. RIP Mrs Sue
