I am so sorry to hear this. No one let me know. I loved Bobbie very much. She was more than a cousin. She was like an aunt and my best friend. I lost her when she moved to a different home and I had no way to find her. God bless the family. I have missed her so much but now I know where she is... with her Lord and Saviour and her beloved husband Luther.

“ I want to express my condolences to Bonnie's family.... I was the Hospice Volunteer for Bobbie since last year... I loved our visits...a couple of months ago, she began telling me that she wasn't feeling good and many times she was asleep when I came for our visits..... I feel blessed to have gotten to know her....

My Aunt Bobbie Jean had a loving heart and a beautiful smile. She enjoyed people and food. I will always think of her when I see green onions. What a wonderful and colorful life she had. (Peggy Jo)

Will always remember Bobbie. She was such a good friend to my mom at Hope Sr. She always made me laugh and smile. I'm sure my mom Margaret was there to greet her! All my thoughts go out to Pam and family. Know you will miss her.
