“ The news of Bonnie's death was quite a blow. I'm deeply sorry I know she fought so hard but also , she has found release from the suffering. I can only imagine what the loss means to all of you. Please know you can all take great comfort from the fact that each and every one of you did everything possible -- to make her last troublesome days as easy for her as possible. She loved all of you fiercely and she knew you loved her. . I remember when I first met her and thought how stunningly beautiful she was and so delighted to find she was also beautiful on the inside. I have fond memories of our high school years together and feeling so blessed to have had her in my life. She has left her mark on us and we know we have lost a great friend whose life was an inspiration to live by. Praying for your family for faith to accept the challenge of your world without her. Love and tears, Debbie Yearego Hammond.

That was so sweet of you Debbie! I know she always looked forward to the days you were meeting up for your lunch dates. She also was talking about the sleep over/hotel stay you all were going to have. Thank you for being such a good friend to my mom ❤️
