“ Please accept my deepest condolences on your great loss Jeri Lynn and Chris; it tears my heart to know of your pain. I remember initially meeting your family at St. Rene when Brad was just a sweet, shy, and energetic young boy that wanted to play Football and finally got his chance. From that point on, I would get updates, after church, on his Football and other achievements. Throughout the years, until just after his High School Graduation, I had the opportunity to watch him grow (and grow he did) into a well-rounded, handsome young man ready to enter the world on his own. You both did such a fantastic job raising Brad and I know how Proud and Supportive you've been throughout his life; this is something that will envelop your Heart, and Soul, protecting his eternal light within you. May the Lord's Love guide and keep you by his side.
