“ Mike, Marsha, Sam and Melissa, I am so very sorry to hear of Brandon's passing and my love and prayers are with you and your family. Brandon was such a sweet young man, and I know was loved by many. May God wrap his loving arms around you and comfort you during this time of need. We love you with all of our heart, and will continue to pray for you.

“ I never knew your son but I was at the scene shortly after the accident occurred on Livernois and Big Beaver. Because I recently lost my 13 year old son to cancer, I was drawn to get out of my car to be with and pray over your son. I can only imagine how difficult it must be for you not to have been with him during his final moments. I just want to let you know that it appeared that he was completely unconscious and not in any pain. I gently placed my hand on his chest and on his helmet and I asked God to restore his body. This is the same prayer I prayed over my son just 9 months ago. I touched his gloved hand and assured him that "you're going to be okay". I honestly don't know if he was able to hear me or if he was already gone, but I wanted to make sure that he knew he wasn't alone. I am so sorry for your loss. There are no words....just know that you are not alone in your grief and your love for your son. The loss you feel is because the love you had was so deep. “ To the Brown family, my heart goes out to you during this terrible time. I cannot imagine the heartache you must be feeling right now. Brandon was such a nice young man and my family really enjoyed his company. I pray that you can find solace and comfort during this difficult time.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. ~From a headstone in Ireland
