“ Brian, you'll be missed. Even in high school I knew you were a man way beyond your years. You were the sweetest, most gentle, kindest guy I have ever met. I will always remember our times laughing together at random RO house parties. Thank you for always making me smile, you had a real gift for that. Keeping you and your family in my thoughts.

“ Very saddened to hear about the passing of Brian. Brian and I were very close childhood friends. We used to hang out almost on a daily basis often times at one another's houses especially over the summers. Brian was a good friend and although it's been many years since we have seen each other or kept in touch, there are many amazing memories I have of our friendship as teenagers. My deepest condolences to the families and friends of Brian.

“ I cannot even put into words how much I loved my brother. He was the most AMAZING, LOVING, COMPASSIONATE SOUL. He would do anything for anyone he loved. He was kind and friendly and worked hard at everything he put his mind to. I can't imagine my life without him. I will miss talking to him several times a day and seeing his big beautiful blue eyes. I could write endlessly to express how much he meant to me.

“ We loved Brian, his passing leaves a void in our family and a deep sadness in our hearts. It’s especially hard to lose someone so young. We will miss him but we will hold on to our memories of the times we had together, and trust in the Lord that we will one day be together again. The Stembridge Family

“ Brian was my coworker and friend, he was so talented with computers, coding, excel etc. I learned so much from him, he always found the time to work with me and teach me about "IT" stuff and how to build web stores. He was my lunch buddy, I would text him pictures of my dinner the night before, letting him know I was going to bring him some for lunch, he was always looking forward to tasting my creations. He is the one who introduced me to Mediterranean and Lebanese food which I now love. We had a lot of fun and many laughs together.

Gone too soon, I will miss him deeply. I send my deepest sympathy to Jessica and his family.

Brian, you will not be forgotten, you touched my heart with your friendship and kindness. I believe you are at peace and will always be smiling down on us.
