“ My heart is in my toes as I write this?how sad .. yet there are so many fond memories from so many good times: from the high school hallway pranks and the track meets to weekends at Stony Creek; to the 1974 ?Yellow Prom? to EMU days; and those crazy long drives out to the water, or ON the water, depending on what our ?troubles? were that day?.discussing everything from dating problems, cars, jobs.. ? bouncing life and its mysteries back and forth?. And NO ONE could forget your fabulous and oh, so-much-fun wedding?to this day, the very best wedding I have ever been to. I could hit the rewind button and all these memories and more come flooding back. Brian, you were always there for me, in good times and in bad times. You held my hand and leveled my head more times than I care to count..I will always love you for being my good friend. And Karen, I remember the day you two were married, thinking you are so very lucky getting this amazing, awesome man? I?m so glad you had the time and the chance and that he chose you and you chose him. And to the Reiss family, you in are in my thoughts and prayers every day. God bless you all.

“ Reiss Family - we were so saddened when we were informed of your loss. Brian was a good man and a friendly foe as we sparred during the boys' games in the Chippewa Valley Basketball League. I fondly remember the Hot Shot competition that Kyle and Jake were in when they were in grade school. Brian was so proud when Kyle was making big shots in that tourney to propel us to the next round. Stay strong during this difficult period and embrace the love and support that your friends and family will bestow upon you.

“ Dear Karen, Brianna, Kyle and Family..our prayers for all of you is that you may find the strength and courage to face each new day of this journey in life. You have many beautiful memories to cherish and that is what time cannot erase. Brian was a great guy who put his family above all things. Aidan was the apple of his eye and I am sure he will miss his grandpa even though he is still so small. Take one day at a time and even though it is hard to believe, time will ease the pain you feel in your heart but I know the heart is resilient and pray you find peace and joy in your memories. Live, Love, Laugh as that is what Brian would want you to do. God bless all of the family. We are thinking of you. May he rest in peace.
