

Brian (Rob) Justice

February 8, 2012

Brian Robertson (Rob) Justice, age 42, passed away Wednesday February 8, 2012 Rob was the treasured son of George R. Justice & Connie (Jerry) Billiter Loving brother of Eric and sister-in-law Carla Justice Dearest Uncle of Makena and Nathan Much beloved grandson of Virginia (The late Joseph) Kohler, and Bobby (the late Irene) Justice Rob had been a longtime counseling psychologist in Royal Oak and a respected adjunct faculty member at both Oakland Community College and Macomb Community College. Rob's contributions to the counseling profession and his outstanding legacy as a college instructor will long be revered and remembered by friends, students and faculty alike. Memorial visitation, Saturday February 18th from 2:00pm until 3:30pm at St. Paul United Methodist Church; Memorial service and remarks 3:30pm until 5:00pm at the church. Reception to follow from 5:00pm until 7:00pm, food and refreshments on-site in the fellowship hall. In lieu of flowers, the family requests you bring loving memories.

Tribute Wall

RA

“ Rob-I think of you at times. I am glad we knew each other. You were one of my favorite persons of all time! We will see each other again someday-I told you heaven is real and that's where you are!

Rosanne Acciaioli - June 10, 2024 at 02:52 PM

“ Brian (Rob) Justice

October 23, 2023 at 04:00 AM

“ Brian (Rob) Justice

January 06, 2023 at 05:24 AM

BO

“ I am grateful for having Rob as my friend for so many years. I share my deep sadness with all who knew him. This video is a tribute to his life. He would have approved. Fare well, my friend. <http://youtu.be/BaycOK66FAc>

Bond - March 01, 2012 at 09:55 AM

LL

“ I have fond childhood memories of playing chess with Robby 35 or so years ago on Farnum. My heartfelt prayers and love go out to you, George, Connie, Eric and the rest of Robby's family and loved ones.

Lisa Ledwidge - February 18, 2012 at 11:34 PM

T(

“ To all family members,

With a heavy heart..... I wrtie to you. Rob was like another brother growing up. Matter of fact, there were not too many moments when he was not around. I also had the pleasure to attend a few events of the same interest(music) with him. Always an interesting, fun, kind, and thoughtful person Rob was. I was saddened and schocked to hear about his passing. I have fond and happy memories of him. Sorry, I could not attend in person to share with you. I cannot imagine your pain and saddness, your lose is of great magnitude. His place in your life's can never be replaced, there are no words, I only wish it were that easy. He had touched many, and those he touched will never forget.

*Regards,
Teresa*

Teresa Rogers (Bond) - February 18, 2012 at 08:01 PM

ZS

“ There are very few people who genuinely care about others. Rob Justice was one of them. Your place in our memories and hearts will always remain, Mr. Justice. I will pray for his family and all who had the pleasure of knowing such a man.

Zain Syed - February 17, 2012 at 11:09 PM

RS

“ Rob was a most amazing and unique individual. I have never known anyone with as much intensity and enthusiasm when he was in stride. He struggled through his dark times with fortitude and courage. To Rob's family, I am sorry for your loss, which is tremendous.

Ron Samarian - February 17, 2012 at 10:20 PM

LB

“ Rob was an amazing person- who helped me through the ups and downs of life. His sense of humor and genuine empathy for others made him a friend to all who knew him. I am so saddened by the news of his death. My heartfelt condolences to his family.

Laura Burkhart - February 17, 2012 at 03:40 PM

TH

“ I've only known Rob for a short time, he was my instructor at Oakland Community College and was assisting me with personal statements for graduate school. Rob was an amazing man, and he will surely be missed. My condolences to Rob's parents and his entire family. My prayers are with you.

Tiffany Holmes - February 16, 2012 at 10:12 PM

JA

“ At the moment I found out this news I have had a flood gate of memories open up in my head of the times Robby, myself, Laura, Stephanie, Chris, Eric just to name a few of the Parker Panthers that were friends and hung out on the play ground during lunch. And of course other times causing trouble. I have lots of fond memories of Robby and Eric Justice. I will always cherish my memories and smile each time I think about the fun we all had hanging out at Tiny Tim's and just being kids!! I will smile. RIP Robby and God Bless all.

Jennifer Apple - February 16, 2012 at 04:25 PM

KM

“ Connie , George & Family,
We are so sorry for your great loss.
Kathie & Bruce

Kathie & Bruce Moore - February 16, 2012 at 08:41 AM

ED

“ It is shocking and sad to hear of your loss. Rob was an unusual, thoughtful, humorous, Parker Panther, Kimball Knight, member of our community, occasional voice of reason in the wilderness of youth. He was a joyful addition to our gaming groups, bowling league, and neighborhood version of the little rascals. I have funny and fond memories of Rob that date as far back as the play ground at Parker, lunch room conversations at OCC in the 1980s, and when we shared a job in the Medical Library at WB. Rob is alive in our hearts as the memories of growing up in such a wonderful place and time brought our lives together.

Eric Driscoll - February 14, 2012 at 07:45 PM

LB

“ Our love to Connie, Jerry, Mrs. Kohler, Eric, Carla and all the Family. We are glad for the privilege of meeting Rob and cherish his memory. We are praying for God's abundant peace to be in your hearts as you deal with the loss of your beloved Rob and for a sense of rejoicing as you remember him and his caring life. God be with you, Larry, Linda and Family.

Larry & Linda Billiter - February 14, 2012 at 05:34 PM

PS

“ My Utmost, Fully HeartFelt Condolences to All of Rob's Loved ones. Heaven sent, I know, now, there is a *reason, 'a time and season', Why someone comes into our lives that creates such an impact that words cannot even *suffice at this time.
"Mr. Justice",
Will Always Be a Mentor. A Friend. A Great Comic. A Humanitarian. A Colleague. And, If you will, a Soul mate in the unique sense. I Thank God, beyond recognition, for the *experience(s) to meet and know Rob (Brian) Justice. Thank you, So, Very, Very Much.

Paula Samul - February 14, 2012 at 09:37 AM

JB

“ We are so sorry for your family's great loss and wish we could do something to ease the pain and comfort all of you, you have our prayers and love in the difficult days ahead..Jerry and Denny

Jerry & Denise Brooks - February 13, 2012 at 10:07 AM

CK

“ and, when the stream which overflowed the soul was passed away, a consciousness remained which it had left, deposited upon the silent shore of memory, images and precious thoughts that shall not die, and cannot be destroyed. Wordsworth I will miss you Rob. You were such a kind and giving man. Chuck

Chuck Kesner - February 12, 2012 at 11:11 PM