“ My Uncle Bruno was a natural born story teller. His innate curiosity about the world and how it works explains why he was such a good fit at his career at GM.

Whenever he had a new tale to share, he would suggest: You'd better take a seat! You would have to get ready for the full story, no editing what so ever and it might take awhile!

If you are interested in how to tan alligator hides in your garage or how to prepare the floor surface in an arena for an indoor horseshoe pitching event: you will just have to Google it yourself!

He will be missed by all. Rest in Peace Uncle Bruno. XXXOOO

“ Bruno was my godfather and my uncle. I always felt especially lucky to be his goddaughter – he was a cool guy - engaging, charming, spirited and full of cheer. He and Marcy hosted our family Christmas Eve parties for decades - absolutely magical parties with scores of people, holiday cheer, delicious Polish food, and Santa.

A natural as the family oral-history storyteller- he brought his tales to life with his delivery - sharing vivid stories of his father's experience arriving in the US as a Polish immigrant. I'll miss Bruno. May he rest in peace with Marcy.

“ Uncle Bruno had a light and comfort in his eyes that brightened everyone around him. He was graceful and composed, a strong, fun, fiesty, exuberant but laid back presence and always a delight to be in the room with. He will be missed dearly by all, especially myself. - NKogutB

“ I had the great pleasure to work and golf with Bruno during our days at GM Design. He was a wonderful person, whose low key personality, honesty and sense of humor made him the kind of person who people were easily drawn to. My deepest condolences to Bruno's family. He was one of the "good guys" I was lucky enough to know.
