“ Roger, Rhonda and Family: Candace has always had a special place in my heart. I considered it an honor and privledge to be selected as her "prayer mother" and from that moment have always held her and your family up in my prayers. You have done an amazing job raising her into a beautiful young women. I too am having difficulty finding words of comfort in a time of sorrow. We all morn her departure but look forward to seeing her again with our Heavenly Father! Our deepest love, thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family. “ Roger & Rhonda,
My heart breaks for you at this time of loss. I cannot imagine how difficult it is to release your precious daughter back into the arms of her Heavenly Father, for we know that God allows us the joy of our children for a season. May the Comforter hold you in His arms and grant you the peace that passes all understanding! Buddy & Cheryl (Adimaro) Ashley

“ Dearest Rhonda & Roger,

For the past 30 years you have been a tremendous blessing to me, my family, and countless others. My heart bleeds, along with yours, for the overwhelming loss of your darling Candace.

You two were ever so carefully chosen by our Heavenly Father to be the blessed couple to walk with Candace through this world. He knew you would teach her about the Love of Jesus, of his Mercy and Grace, and he chose grandparents who would be spiritual leaders to follow.

The fact that Candace was born with half of a heart was not a flaw of nature, but a Divine Design of our Great Creator who enriched her with an enormous size of Spiritual heart, which was the real Heartbeat that soared her Faith to the Throne Room of God.

Candace was a special messenger sent from God as a witness to this very last generation of young people. Life is short, each heartbeat a gift from God ? Eternity is forever. Today may be all we have left.

She lived a full life in her short moments on earth.

Your tender love, constant prayers and ever-increasing faith paved the way for Candace to fulfill her God-given destiny. And now completed, her Heavenly Father with open arms welcomed Candace home, into her own glorious mansion.

The Father only loaned her for a few years ? and the tears you shed, along with all who loved her ? is only interest on the loan.

Remember you two were selected above all other couples in the world to love her, care for her and protect her. The father now wants to thank you for an assignment ? Well Done, my children, take comfort and rest in my Peace as Candace is safe with me forever.?

I?m honored to have been a friend.

“ *To the Lee Family, Our deepest sympathy on the passing of your lovely daughter "Candice". We remember her as a friendly young girl who had a real love for animals. Your pain must be tremendous and our thoughts and prayers are with you all during this most difficult time. May the Lord watch over you and bless you always and "Hold you in the Palm of His Hand". Sincerely,
Your neighbors, George & Cindy Kurzym*

“ *Dear George, Rhonda, and Jeromy:
I am finding it difficult to even imagine what sorrow and grief you are experiencing in the loss of your daughter, Candace. She was a very special daughter the Lord entrusted in your care twenty two years ago. From her entrance into this world, we all prayed that the Lord would keep His hand upon her, and He did in His own way.
Candace had a zest for life, she wanted to experience as much as she could, although limited, she was still a trooper! From an early age, my family had the opportunity to have Candace and Jeromy spend time with my daughters, Rachael and Rhonda. The four loved each other, and were there to support each other throughout the years. I count it a privledge to have been a part of Candace's life on this earth. Her smile, and her laughter I will never forget. My love and prayers to each of you during this time of loss. May God give you His "peace that passeth all understanding".
Love, Ron*

“ Dear Roger, Rhonda, Jeromy & family:

I will never be able to express appropriately what is in my heart. I am so saddened about the loss of your beautiful daughter Candace. I can't imagine the depth of your pain and sadness that all of you are going through right now and in the days, months, and years to follow. Losing a child is one of the saddest life experiences possible, and words of true comfort are difficult to find. Losses like this can make us challenge our faith; however, this is precisely the time when our faith needs to be its strongest.

I am praying that your faith will help you through this very difficult time and help you to know that God's purpose, whatever it may be, is at work. I pray that you will find the strength to get you through your grief and sadness. I'm praying for God to give you strength and peace as you go through the days and months ahead. Your heart will never be the same and your life will never be normal again, but you'll form a new "normal" and you'll adapt to that hole in your heart. May the Lord grant to you so much grace, and the peace and strength you need for each moment. May you always feel Candace's love around and within you. And may angels hold your hand on every step of your journey, covering you in their warm embrace whenever you should need it.

*Love & Hugs,
