“ I was lucky enough to work with Carla, we sure had some fun times and lots of laughter. When i got my new home she bought me the cutest little ornament, it said new home 2003. I hang it on my tree each year and think of her and smile. Even more special now. I pray that GOD gives your family comfort and peace. I pray that one day the heartache that you are feeling is met with fond memories of your wonderful mom, wife, sister, daughter, nonni. Love you Carla. 💙

“ Chuck and Family,

I feel a profound loss and disbelief. Much more difficult for all of you. Carla and I both loved clothes and shoes. Had so much in common. Our anniversaries were just 2 months apart, same year. Our deepest sympathy. Much Love and Blessings to all of you.

“ Our condolences to Charles, Joseph and Daniel and all members of the Toreli family. Please accept our sympathy at this sad and mournful time. While we know no words to ease the pain of your loss, we want you to know we are saddened by Carla’s passing.

Perhaps some comfort can be taken from the wise and prophetic thoughts about the mysteries of life and death as quoted:

"Death is the liberator of him whom freedom cannot release; the physician of him whom medicine cannot cure; the comforter of him whom time cannot console." ~ Colton

"The Remembrance of the good done by those we have loved is the only consolation when we have lost them." ~ Demoustier

"To live in the hearts we leave behind is not to die." ~ Thomas Campbell

The solace all of us now seek will be found in the many endearing memories we have of Carla from the many years we were blessed to have her with us, lest we not forget her.
