

Carmine Volpe

January 30, 1935 - June 16, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Carmine Volpe, a devoted husband, loving father, cherished grandfather, and great grandfather. A true master of his craft, he passed away peacefully on June 16, 2025.

Born in Ari, Italy, Carmine discovered his talent for tailoring, eventually becoming a master tailor known not only for his impeccable workmanship but for the care and pride he poured into every stitch. Outside of work, Carmine found joy in life's simple things—a sunny day in the garden, the bubbling pot of homemade tomato sauce on the stove, or the laughter shared over a glass of his hand-crafted wine. He was happiest with his hands in the soil, a joke on his lips, and loved ones nearby.

Carmine was a business owner for over 30 years, owning two men's clothing stores, with locations in Troy and West Bloomfield, Michigan. Carmine also played the violin, as he was musically gifted. After a few auditions he played for the Australian Symphony Orchestra.

A true jokester at heart, Carmine had an easy smile and a quick wit that could light up a room. Whether he was teasing a grandchild or slipping in a well-timed one-liner, his humor brought comfort and connection to those around him.

He will be remembered not only for his craftsmanship and culinary passions but for his unwavering love of family, his deep appreciation for the everyday joys of life, and his ability to find humor in the moment.

He is survived by his children; Enrico Volpe, Giovanni (Claudia) Volpe, his grandchildren; Alexa (Ross) LaFountain, Sabatino Volpe, and Ava Volpe, and his great granddaughter, Chloe LaFountain. He will be deeply missed by extended family, dear friends, and anyone who ever had the pleasure of hearing one of his jokes or listening to his beautiful music.

“ We didn't have the opportunity to get to know Carmine as we would have liked, but the first moment we met him he had a twinkle in his eye and his joyful spirit was evident through his genuine smile. Our deepest sympathy to the Volpe family as we know he will be greatly missed.
