“ My dear friend Carol Hyland and I go back more than 70 years, definitely childhood friends. I knew her whole family, 3 brothers and a sister. She is the last of her immediate family. We did a lot of things together. We played in a small swimming pool that her father had made from canvas. Some summer days were spent reading comic books and eating pumpkin seeds on a blanket outside. Carol was a very spirited person, always wanting people to smile. If they weren't smiling she made it her quest to make them smile. You would not see her depressed, she hid it very well. I can only say the mold was broken when God made her. We have been each others 'cheap psychiatrists' through thick and thin, not judgmental of each other. Godspeed my precious friend.

“ Debbie and family Im so sorry for your loss. I have a lot of beautiful and fun memories with my Aunt that will keep me laughing for years to come. She was always ready to hear or tell a good joke. She loved practical jokes and making people laugh. We’ve had some really good belly laughs that brought us to tears from laughing so hard. At the same time she had an open mind and it was always fun slipping down the many rabbit holes with her trying to figure out life’s greatest mysteries. She was always kind and generous and always ready to try something new. She had a competitive streak when game playing and a very worthy opponent. I will cherish the time we had together, but it will never be enough. She was a bright light in my life and I will miss her dearly. Love, Sherry Berry

“ There are so many great memories of my Aunt Carol to share. I had so much fun growing up with her around. I spent many many nights at my grandparents house , Aunt Carol would play records and we would sing and dance. Go for long walks in the summertime. When she came home from the hospital with my little baby cousin Debbie, she called and asked for me to come over, I stayed for a week helping her With Debbie. My aunt could lite up a room with her laughing, which she did a lot. I will forever love and miss her. Linda.
