“ To the family of Carole Paige: Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. While we don't know one another, experiencing the devastation of losing a loved one is something we all face in our lives. The Bible promises a time when "death will be no more" (Rev 21:3.4) and assures us that God hears our prayers (Ps 55:22). I hope this brings you some peace during this difficult time.

“ My cousin Carole and her parents (my Aunt Anita and Uncle Norm) used to come to Ohio to visit our grandparents, who lived close to us, frequently. I remember that I would follow her around like a little puppy. When she was a teenager, she would sometimes go out on dates when she was here for the summer. I was fascinated by watching her get ready and especially putting on her make-up and she was kind enough to allow me to watch and to also put some on me too. I so enjoyed her visits as I didn't have any sisters or older siblings and I got a taste of what that would be like. It probably gave her a sense of what it would be like to have a little sister, too. I have many good memories of those times. Kris McKelvey Swartz
