

Casmere Adam Sikora

November 9, 1931 - June 19, 2014

Casmere Adam Sikora, age 82, passed away Thursday, June 19, 2014.

He was born November 9, 1931 in Detroit, Michigan; son of Helen and Adam Sikora.

He was married to Gladys Glomski for 22 years.

Beloved father of Karen (Mike) Peterson of Dallas, Texas and Nancy (Joe) Debrowski of Spring Lake, MI.

Loving grandfather of Adam (Kelly) Debrowski, Erik Peterson, Ben (Bre) Peterson and Emma Debrowski.

Dear brother of Arthur and Stanley (deceased).

Cass was a roofer by trade for over 30 years and was a lifetime member of Roofers Local 149. After his retirement he enjoyed the hobby of building birdhouses. He loved the outdoors and feeding animals outside of his home in Detroit. Up until a month before his death he visited Belle Isle almost every Sunday, a place he truly loved. He was a proud member of Walter Paulch Post #12 of the Polish Legion of American Veterans following his service in the Marine Corps during the Korean War.

Cass was a lung cancer survivor of 16 years, enjoying the last years to the fullest.

He is in heaven now with his beloved dog Happy.

“ It's very hard to bear the loss of your loved one Casmere Adam Sikora. Although there is little that one can say or do to take away all your pain. May the God (Jehovah) of all comfort give you the strength needed to endure the days ahead? Our heavenly father promises that his original plan for humans to live forever in paradise will come to completion. Just a little while longer and "death will be no more, neither pain or sorrow" - it will all be a thing of the past. Isaiah 41:10 & 13, Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.
