“ "Kay" Catherine Young Rimas Zegarski was my sister. Known and loved by many of her lifelong Utica High friends. They will remember her as the spark in every occasion. I will remember her as one of my big sisters who gave me piggy-back rides as a child and the "rock & roller" that she was. As a beautician from age 18, Kay had the opportunity to meet and care for friends from all around the Metro Detroit and Utica areas. She was a community activist and was a lifetime member of American Legion Auxiliary. Her family and friends will miss her strong laugh and hugs. May she rest in peace.
