

Cecilia "Silky" Malkiewicz

April 3, 1943 - August 6, 2016

Born April 3, 1943 on the family farm in Clifford, Michigan; daughter of Joseph and Tekla Rank. After years on the farm, Silky, parents, 2 sisters and 4 brothers moved to Detroit, Michigan. Silky attended Our Lady Queen of Apostles and Pershing High School in Detroit.

Silky married and raised six children in Detroit in the home on Harold Street. Silky enjoyed playing cards, bowling and darts, where she held a position in a league dart competition. Silky was very competitive. Silky worked in a few bars in Detroit until she settled in at Head Coach Bar in Hamtramck where she was known as the "Best Bar Maid in Town" and earned the nickname "Silky Smooth." Silky had a one of a kind personality and made many friends who became family. She served up many drinks even had a few of her favorite Jack and Coke. She had a passion for collecting antiques, Coca Cola memorabilia and dolls.

Silky spent her last years surrounded by a loving family and peacefully passed away on August 6, 2016. Silky is survived by her children Coreen Tabaczuk (Chris), Robert Robb (Tammy), Pamela Troszak (Scott), Tammy Ali (Adam), James Malkiewicz (Jaclyn) predeceased by daughter Melody Frank (Mike) , 16 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

“ Im sorry I wasn't able to make it to the funeral. I heard from my mom only today. Nobody told us, wish we could of been there. Silky was so kind to me the few times I met her as a child. God bless ❤️

“ I learned about this on Facebook- a mutual friend shared it and I was shocked and saddened when I saw the name, as I hadn't seen her or her family in many years. Silky and her family were always very kind to me and I appreciate the time we spent together in Detroit in the early 90's, she had a lot on her hands and worked very hard for her children - she'll always have a special place in my heart. God bless you Silky and the Malkiewicz family.
